London, W.C.1.

Cheques should always be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S CHARITY.

Dr. Williams's Trust.

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, and exhibitions for boys and girls in the County Schools, Wrexham. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, application should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO POOR MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £50, not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. It has been the practice for many years to restrict these grants to ministers of Baptist or Congregational Churches. Retired ministers are not eligible.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers, but are not restricted to members of Baptist or Congregational Churches. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of May of each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University of the value of £70 per annum for 3 years.—Prospectus may be had from the Secretary. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications must be sent in not later than April 30th in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £75 per annum for 2 years, tenable at any approved Theological College.—Prospectus may be had from the Secretary. Applications must be sent in not later than May 31st in each year.

TRAVELLING SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £150 tenable for one year in any approved foreign Theological School or University. Prospectus may had from the Secretary. Applications must be sent in not later than September 30th in each year.

For all the foregoing, application must be made to the Secretary, who supply further information as required.

THE LIBRARY.—Primarily a Theological Library intended for the use of Ministers, Students, and other persons engaged in the study of Theology, Ecclesiastical History, Comparative Religion, and kindred subjects, it will also be found useful for the study of History, Philosophy, Economics, the History of Language and Literature, and Classical Literature both Ancient and Modern.

The Library does NOT supply Fiction, or books on Mathematics, Music, Natural History, Physical Science, or Medicine; nor does it supply School Text Books or Class Books.

Books are lent to persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

Copies of the Regulations and forms of application for admission may be had on application personally, or by post, to the Librarian.

Readers having books sent to them are required to pay carriage on receipt of the books.

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m.

The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole month of August; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.

The Reading Room is also closed on the last Thursday in January, March, June and October.

Payments in connexion with the Library should be made by stamps or Postal Orders for small amounts. If cheques are sent they should be made payable to DR. WILLIAMS'S CHARITY, and not otherwise.

All parcels and communications relating to the Library should be addressed to—

TRUSTEES.—The Rev. W. G. Tarrant, a Trustee since 1891, died in January of this year. Mr. Tarrant throughout this long period of trusteeship rendered valuable and devoted service to the Trust in all its departments, and especially on the Library Committee.

The Rev. J. Percival Chalk has been appointed in his place.

DONATIONS.—Amongst the various donors, whose gifts are recorded in this number of the Bulletin, our special thanks are due to the executors of the late Rev. Dr. George Hanson, formerly Presbyterian minister in Montreal, for allowing us to select about sixty volumes of modern theology from amongst his books. These all appear in their places in the classified list of accessions, but we also print as an appendix a complete list of the donation. Some, as will be seen, are useful extra copies of books obviously already in the Library. But in addition to these there are a number which for one reason or another were not purchased for the Library at the time of publication, but which we are very glad to have on our shelves, including several by American writers, whom it is a pleasure to make better known in this country.

Notes and News.

TRUSTEES.—The Rev. W. Copeland Bowie, D.D., having removed from London to Worthing, has resigned his position as a Trustee. Dr. Bowie was prior Trustee and has served the Trust in all its activities since 1891, the year of his election.

The Rev. R. Nicol Cross, M.A., has also resigned as a Trustee, having taken up the charge of the First Presbyterian Church, Belfast. Mr. Cross was elected a Trustee in 1925.

Lt.-Col. Chatfeild Clarke and the Rev. Griffith J. Sparham have been elected Trustees to fill the vacancies.

LIGHTING.—During the August vacation an entirely new system of lighting was installed in the Library Reading Room and in the Lending Department. In the latter room the old shaded lights (reminiscent of the war and air raids) have disappeared, and we now have a good general light over the whole room. In the Reading Room an attempt has been made to improve the lighting without losing the feeling of quiet and restfulness to the eyes. This has been done by installing a moderate general illuminant for the whole room, with strong local lights for students working at the tables or consulting the shelves in the bays.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS.—The examination for the Divinity Scholarships was held in September last. Four candidates presented themselves and four scholarships were awarded to Mr. G. Parry Jones, B.A., B.D., of the United Theological College, Aberystwyth, and Mr. C. H. Firth, B.A., of Cheshunt College, Cambridge. Mr. R. F. G. Calder, B.A., of Lancashire Independent College, also reached scholarship standard. Mr. G. Parry Jones qualified for the Scholar's Prize.

The Trustees have decided to print in the Bulletin a list of Divinity scholars since 1901. The list will be found at the end of the present number. It will be added to as new scholars are appointed.
